

REMARKS

This paper amends the claims of the application in ways believed to be related purely to matters of form, and adds new claims 24-41. Of the new claims, only claims 24 and 31 are independent, and believed patentable for the same reasons as allowed claims 16 and 17, respectively. Each of the other new claims depends from either one or the other of claims 24 and 31.

Conclusion

All of the claims of the application are believed in condition for allowance and their passage to issue is earnestly solicited.
